Vendor Testimonial:

We want to thank the Real Equity team at Chipping Norton so much for helping us to sell our house so swiftly. We had Anthony come to the house several times to give us advice on what we had to change to make our house more presentable for sale. Everything he suggested we did and were amazed at the transformation.

By the time it came for the house to be photographed we were so proud of the way it now looked. Christina and the photographer did a terrific job with the photos showing off the house and garden beautifully.

The first buyer through the door was the one who bought it and we were both happy with the outcome.
