Perfectly positioned in the sought after Sanctuary Estate, this single level stunner delivers on low maintenance living and entertaining, while remaining high on sophistication and style. A sleek white kitchen, accented by quality stainless steel appliances and an island bench overlooks the dining room, with an edgy, industrial vibe, while natural light cascades into the lounge room via skylights. There's also a family room on offer, meaning everyone has ample space to stretch out and enjoy. Three light and bright bedrooms and two bathrooms also await, while outdoors, either host family and friends on the covered and generously sized timber deck or unwind in the jacuzzi, framed by privacy hedges and an easy-care backyard. Additional features include plantation shutters throughout, solar panels, pristine timber floors, ducted air conditioning, an alarm system and a remote garage.
