The first of its kind for the suburb and built to perfection, this extremely unique residence is a part of a stunning Torrens title triplex development that presents the opportunity for its new owner to enjoy a contemporary and convenient lifestyle in what could be one of the highest quality builds in Wattle Grove. The architects and builders have put together a very clever design with each residence offering the only common wall being the garage and the quality of construction is second to none with a combination of full brick, concrete slabs, contemporary cladding, pebblecrete driveways, and timber accents.
